Data from 2019 edition of Journal Citation Reports

- You can “Create Citation Report” with the journal’s H-Index and average citations per article

3. If you subscribe to JCR the following appears in the WOS article record. Click on Journal Citation Reports and it takes you to the JCR record without having to login.

4. If you subscribe to Incites select “Journals, Books, Conference Papers”.

This pulls data from WOS and allows for filtering and displaying the widest range of individual-selected metrics

5. If your journal is not in JCR and you need to provide some measure of its quality by using a curated list, use any of the sources in Table 46.4. Scopus-based lists have many more journals as does Dimensions, which harvests from a variety of curated lists
